TODAY'S GAME

SETTING THE SCENE

The Bengals close out the preseason Saturday night with a home game against the Indianapolis Colts at Paycor Stadium.

Cincinnati is coming off a 31-17 win at Washington on Monday, a performance that featured contributions in all three phases. QB Joe Burrow played the first three series and led two touchdown drives, capping his night with a scoring strike to WR Charlie Jones early in the second quarter. WR Mitchell Tinsley stole the show with five catches for 73 yards and two touchdowns, both highlight grabs that continued his impressive training camp.

Defensively, Cincinnati rebounded from two early scores by forcing a pair of turnovers. S Tycen Anderson intercepted a deep ball to halt a Washington drive, and rookie LB Barrett Carter followed with a pick that set up Tinsley's second touchdown from QB Jake Browning. Special teams also chipped in, including returns by Jones and WR Isaiah Williams that led to points and a 54-yard FG from K Evan McPherson.

Saturday also offers one final tune-up for Cincinnati's starters before the focus shifts to September. The coaching staff has emphasized consistency and clean execution, looking to carry momentum into the regular season while also evaluating depth across the roster.

Saturday's matchup doubles as the final audition for players battling to secure roster spots before Tuesday's cutdown to 53. The Bengals will then turn their focus to the regular season opener Sep. 7 at Cleveland, followed by their home debut Sep. 14 against Jacksonville.

THE SERIES: VS COLTS

The Bengals and Colts have met 29 times in the preseason since the franchise moved to Indianapolis in 1984, with the Bengals holding a 16-13 edge. The series is even at 8-8 in Cincinnati, while the Bengals lead 8-5 on the road. The Colts have won the last five preseason meetings, including a 27-14 decision at Paycor Stadium last year.

In regular season play, Indianapolis leads 20-13 overall, which includes a 2-0 postseason mark. The Bengals have taken three of the last four meetings, though the teams are not scheduled to face off in the 2025 regular season.

Give a child the gift of nature and a lifelong sense of wonder.

One of the best things you can give your child or grandchild doesn't come from a store. It's time spent outdoors discovering the gifts of nature, right in their own backyard. Nature Explore resources give you fun tools and activities to give the children in your life a love of nature, lifelong learning skills, and an everlasting sense of wonder.

Go to arborday.org and check out Nature Explore. There, you can download a free Nature Explore Families Club kit and learn about other Nature Explore resources for connecting children with nature. Whether you live in the city, the country, or anywhere in between, go online to arborday.org and start seeing what a difference nature can make.

ZAC TAYLOR

HEAD COACH - 7TH SEASON

Zac Taylor became the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019, and enters his seventh season in 2025. He owns a 46-52-1 regular-season record and a 5-2 postseason mark. Under his leadership, the Bengals have posted four straight winning seasons and built one of the NFL's top offenses.

In 2024, Taylor led Cincinnati to a 9-8 finish, ending the year with five consecutive wins. The Bengals led the NFL in passing yards per game and ranked top 10 in scoring and total offense.

Joe Burrow set franchise records in completions, yards and touchdowns, earning Pro Bowl and Comeback Player of the Year honors. Ja'Marr Chase won the rare receiving "Triple Crown," while Chase Brown broke out as a versatile threat.

Despite injuries in 2023, Taylor guided the Bengals to another 9-8 season. A midseason surge with a healthy Burrow showed promise. When Burrow went down with injury, Taylor helped backup Jake Browning step in and finish 4-3. Browning ranked second leaguewide in passing yards and completion percentage during that stretch.

Chase notched his first 100-catch season, while Joe Mixon surpassed 1,200 scrimmage yards for the third year in a row.

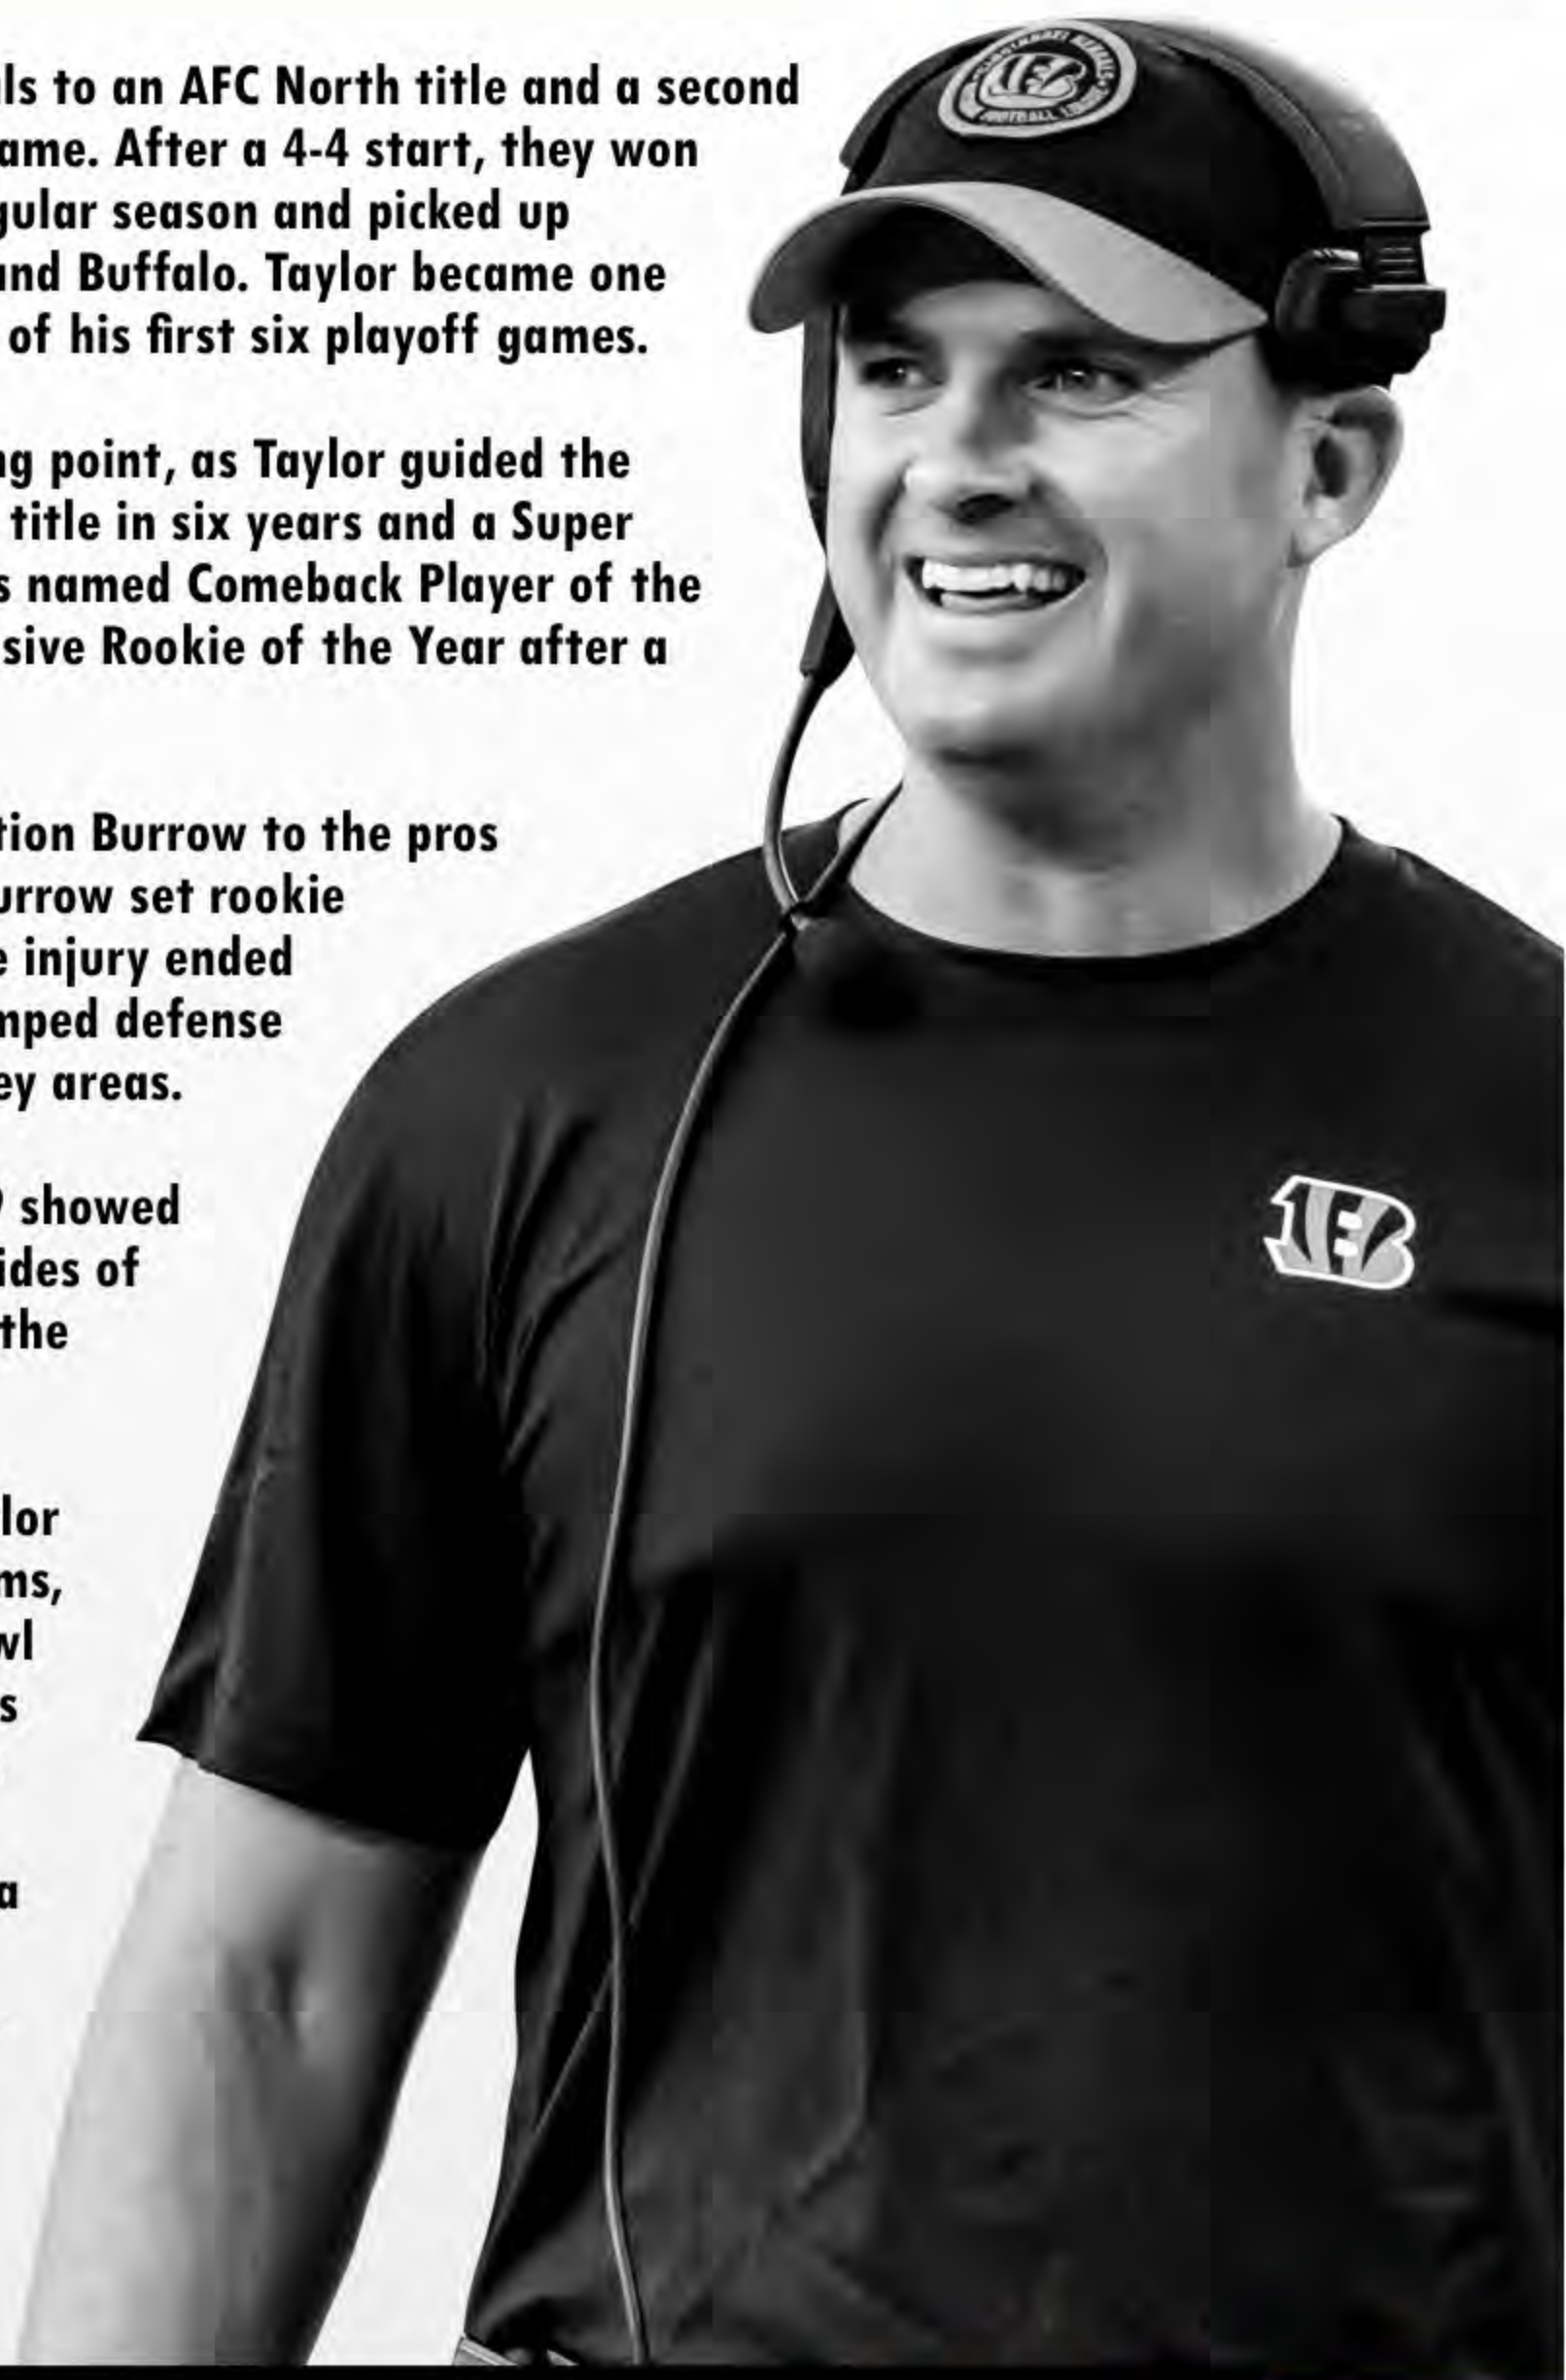

In 2022, Taylor led the Bengals to an AFC North title and a second straight AFC Championship Game. After a 4-4 start, they won eight straight to close the regular season and picked up playoff wins over Baltimore and Buffalo. Taylor became one of just 13 coaches to win five of his first six playoff games.

The 2021 season was a turning point, as Taylor guided the Bengals to their first division title in six years and a Super Bowl appearance. Burrow was named Comeback Player of the Year, and Chase earned Offensive Rookie of the Year after a record-setting debut.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition Burrow to the pros amid COVID-19 challenges. Burrow set rookie passing records before a knee injury ended his season, and Taylor's revamped defense quietly improved in several key areas.

Taylor's debut season in 2019 showed second-half growth on both sides of the ball, setting the tone for the team's future rise.

Before joining Cincinnati, Taylor coached QBs with the L.A. Rams, helping them reach Super Bowl LIII. His resume includes stops at UC, Miami (NFL) and Texas A&M. As a player, he was a record-setting QB at Nebraska and was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year. He and his wife Sarah have four children.

MORE THAN A STADIUM

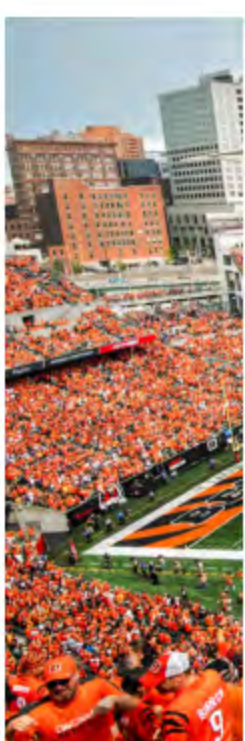

CINCINNATI IS OUR HOME

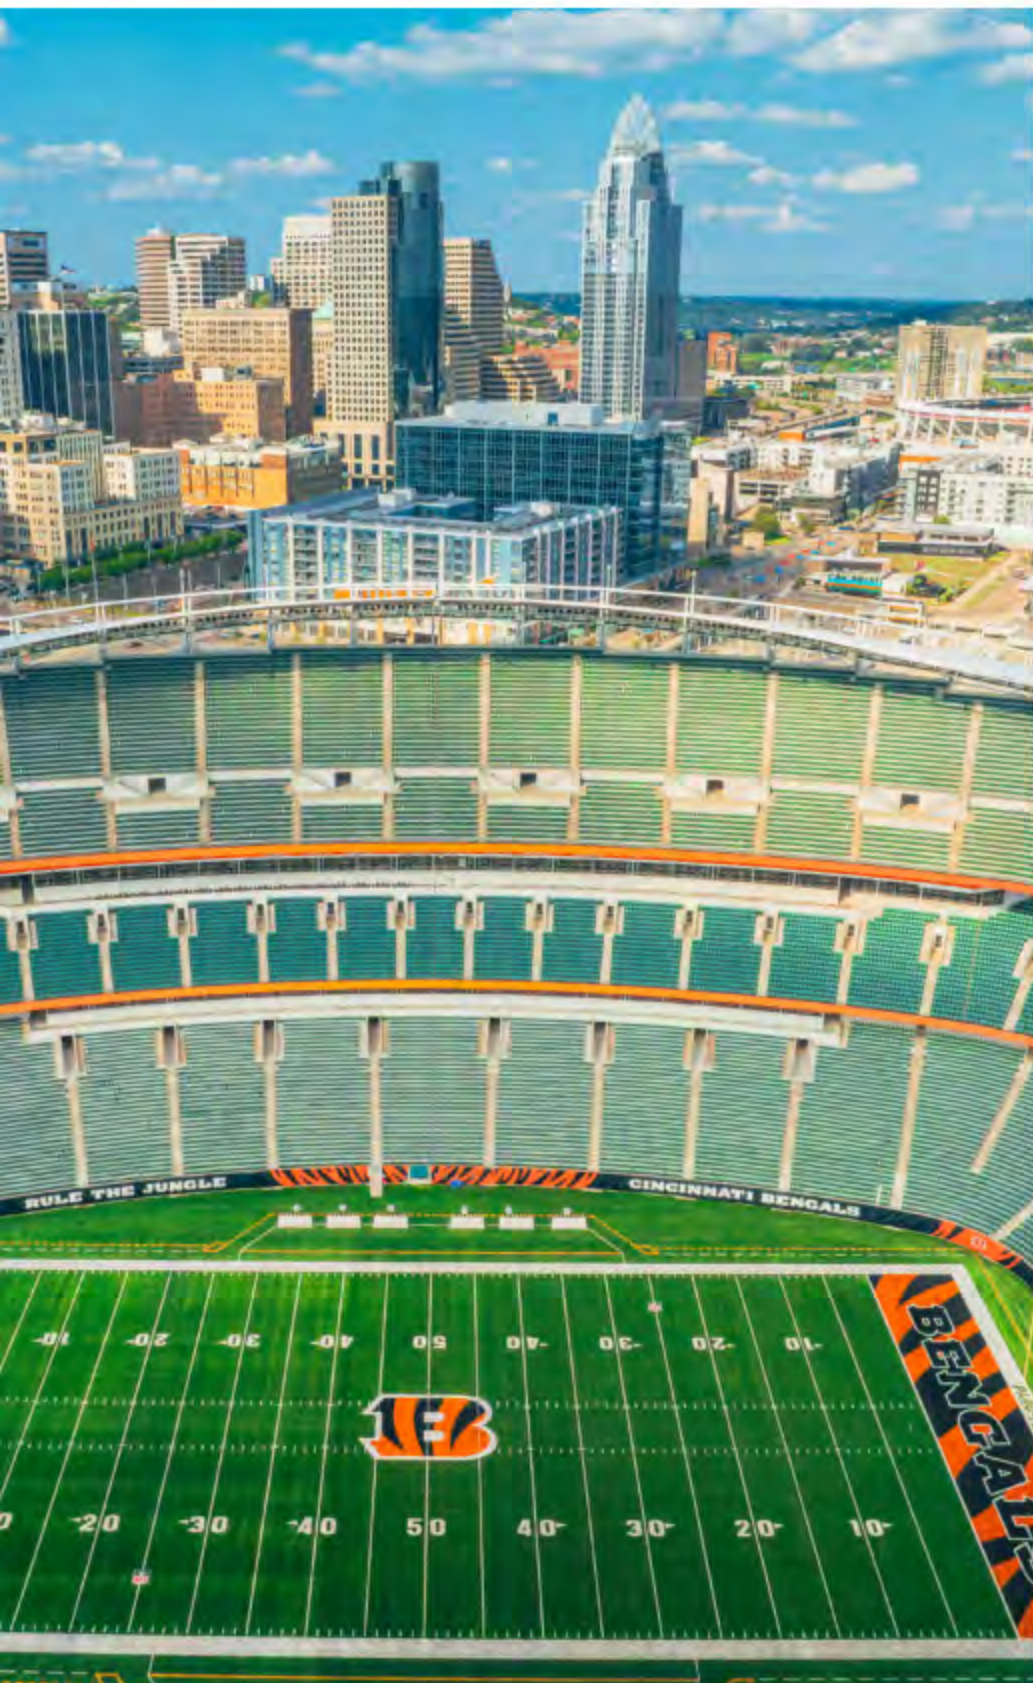

Paycor Stadium isn't just a place to watch football, it's the heart of Cincinnati. Since opening as Paul Brown Stadium in 2000, it has been a gathering place for unforgettable moments. Today, with thoughtful renovations underway, the stadium continues to provide an electrifying gameday experience for fans and players alike.

The Bengals drive over $1 billion in annual economic impact to the region. Through training camps, charity initiatives and unforgettable gameday experiences, the stadium remains a cornerstone of Cincinnati's downtown life.

"We love this city, and we love our fans. We are committed to investing in our team, our stadium and our community."

CAROLINE & ELIZABETH BLACKBURN

“The new lease keeps Paycor Stadium on par with other communities around the country and maintains an excellent venue. Paycor Stadium will remain a focal point for Cincinnati’s riverfront. Importantly, this solidifies the future of the Bengals in Cincinnati, our beloved home, for many years to come,” Katie Blackburn said.

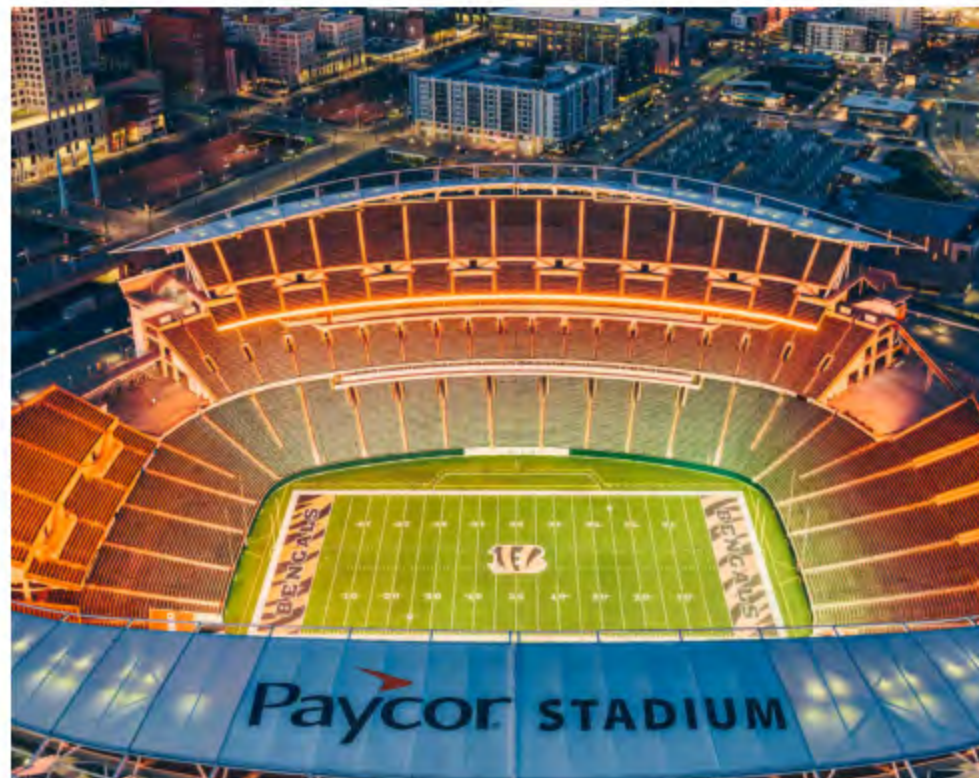

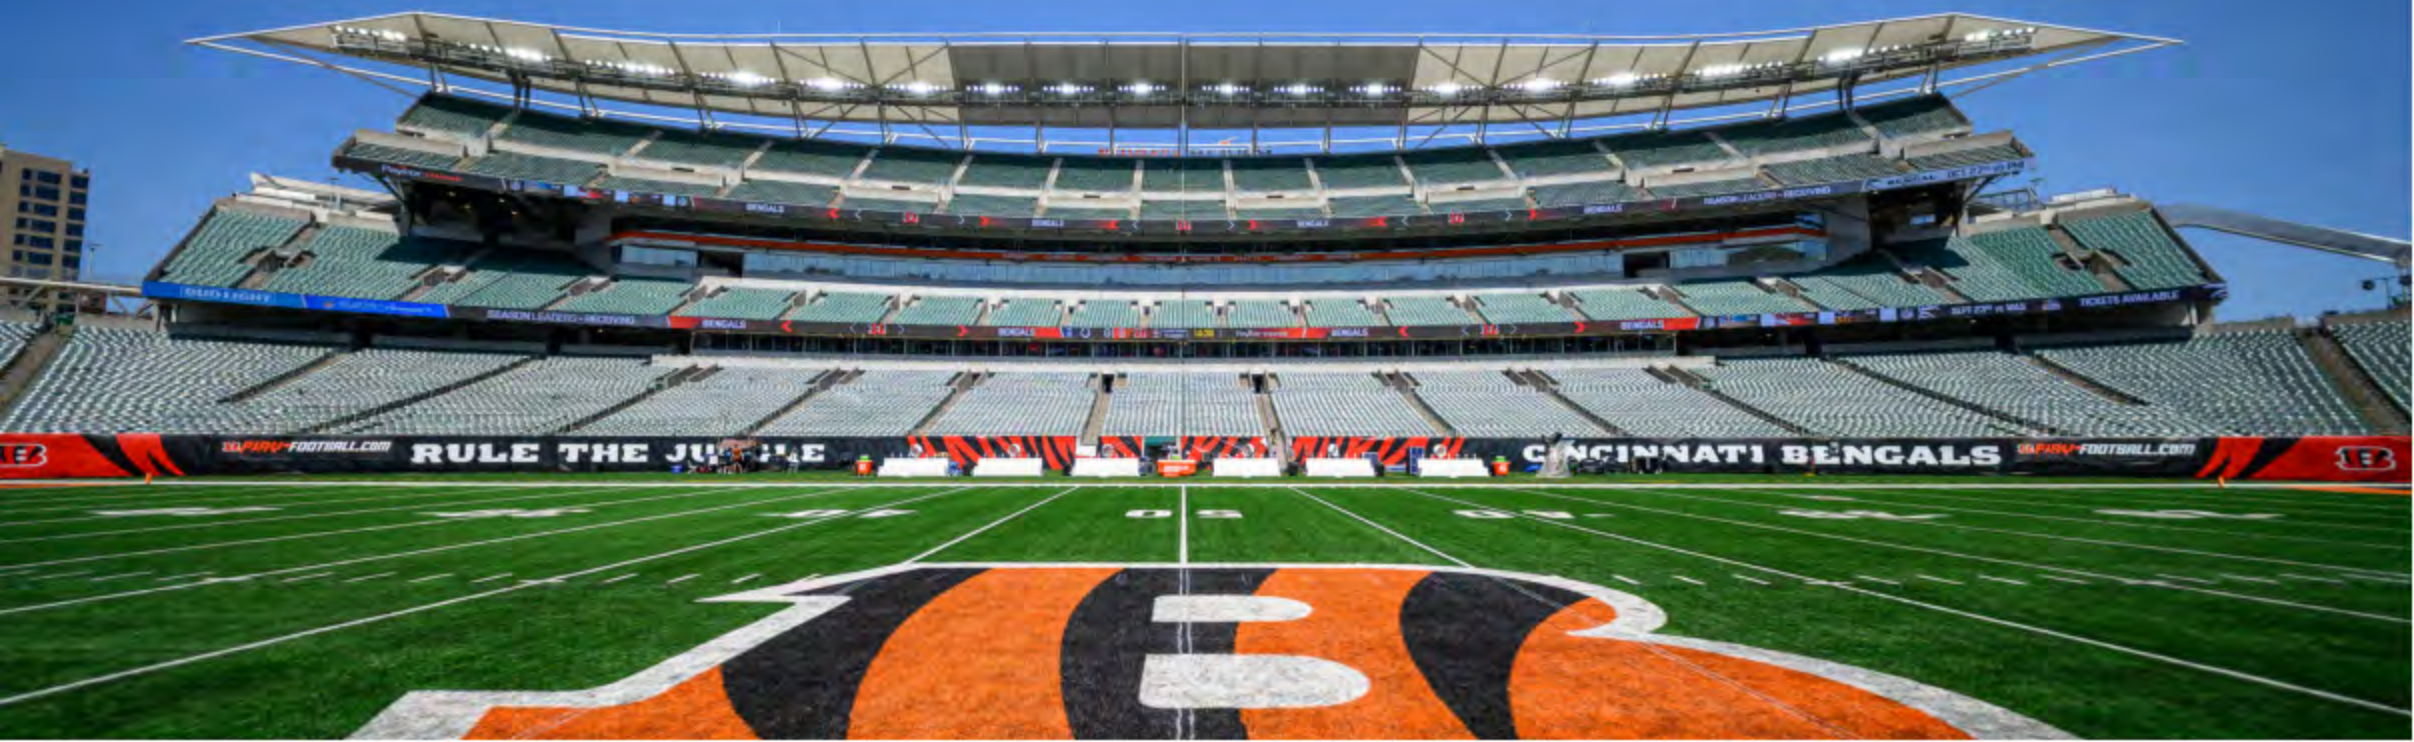

Paycor Stadium is more than a building, it’s where history is made, fans unite and the future of Bengals football comes alive. With top-tier renovations, a downtown location and generations of loyal fans, the stadium stands as a symbol of pride, community and Who Dey spirit for years to come.

“We want to compete at the highest level in the NFL here in Cincinnati. It was important to have an agreement that works for us, works for our fans and works for the community.”

GAMEDAY TRADITIONS

RULER OF THE JUNGLE & ROCK N RULE

On Bengals gameday, two unforgettable moments light up Paycor Stadium. Just before kickoff, the Ruler of the Jungle takes the spotlight on the Ruler Stage. A Bengals legend, celebrity or hometown hero leads the entire stadium in a thunderous “WHO DEY!” chant, sending a jolt of energy through Who Dey Nation and signaling that football is officially underway in Cincinnati.

As the game reaches its final stretch, Rock N Rule takes over. Heading into the fourth quarter or during the first defensive timeout, a live guitarist shreds an electrifying rendition of “Welcome to the Jungle.” The roar of the guitars mixes with the roar of the fans, rallying the crowd and fueling the Bengals defense for the closing push.

2024 FAN OF THE YEAR

BENGALS CAPTAIN AND WHO BAE

Jess and Jeremy Conley are lifelong Bengals fans and 15-year STREAK Season Ticket Members who bonded over a “Who Dey” on their first date. They bought their first season tickets together and joined the Bengal Bomb Squad tailgate in Lot 1. In 2017, a Microsoft commercial featuring the tailgate inspired Jeremy to embrace his game day alter ego, Bengals Captain, complete with a Captain Obvious look. He later dubbed Jess “Who Bae” as a nod to their favorite chant.

The Conleys have supported Cincinnati causes since 2012, most recently backing Freestore Foodbank, Pelotonia. They also contribute to Bengals player charities like the Cincy Hat Project, which benefits adults with developmental disabilities.

Jess also created and hosts Tigress Talk, the first and only Bengals YouTube show entirely run by women. She uses the platform to support H.E.R. Cincinnati and Women Helping Women, organizations serving women and families across the city.

Each say they married their best friend and the biggest Bengals fan they know.

PAUL BROWN

INNOVATOR. COACH. FOUNDER.

Paul Brown is one of the most iconic figures in NFL history, renowned for his groundbreaking coaching methods and lasting influence on the game. Founder of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1967 and winner of a record seven championships, his strategic brilliance reshaped football and left an enduring mark on generations of players, coaches and fans.

Brown was a pioneer in every sense. He was the first coach to use classroom-style play study, relay plays from the sideline, station assistants in the press box, evaluate players through film, hire a full-time staff and require players to stay together in a hotel before games.

His innovations included the face mask, the passing pocket, the draw play, the taxi squad and the timed 40-yard dash, staples of the game to this day. Over his career, he won 213 games, broke the color barrier in pro football by signing Bill Willis and Marion Motley in 1946 and became the winningest head coach in Cleveland Browns history. In 1976, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The promise inside Hazel is greater than the poverty around her.

Hazel doesn't know what she wants to be when she grows up, and that's just fine. At age 11, her job is to play, grow and learn. But for kids like her in the world's poorest places, poverty gets in the way.

ChildFund works in 24 countries to make sure children grow up healthy, educated, self-sufficient and safe, wherever they were born.

Thanks to generous supporters, our programs help children fulfill their potential. That's been our promise to them for 80-plus years.

ANTHONY MUÑOZ

CLASS OF 1998

ABOUT

POSITION: Offensive Tackle

HEIGHT: 6-6 | WEIGHT: 278

NFL CAREER: 1980-1992, Cincinnati Bengals

SEASONS: 13 | GAMES: 185

COLLEGE: University of Southern California

DRAFTED: 1st Round (3rd Overall), 1980

"Anthony's induction was very gratifying to our organization and to all of our fans ... It was particularly so because the selectors recognized Anthony as a truly special player and person who deserved election on his first try. During his playing days, no one in the NFL was better. It's justifiable to consider him as the best offensive lineman ever. He has conducted his personal and family life in a way that is a great credit to the Bengals and the NFL."

- Bengals President Mike Brown

The Bengals' Anthony Munoz, who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, was inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 1, 1998. It was the first year of Hall eligibility for Munoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. There currently are 382 Hall of Famers, and Munoz is one of only 90 players selected in their first year of eligibility.

In six of his 13 Bengals seasons, Munoz earned at least one major award as NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year. One award citation, issued by NFL Alumni, reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Munoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer."

Though there are other Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Munoz is considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to enter the Hall. Munoz was born in Ontario, California.

KEN RILEY

CLASS OF 2023

ABOUT

POSITION: Cornerback

HEIGHT: 5-11 | Weight: 181

NFL CAREER: 1969-1983, Cincinnati Bengals

SEASONS: 15 | GAMES: 207

COLLEGE: Florida A&M

DRAFTED: 6th Round (135th Overall), 1969

"Ken Riley was a wonderful person ... everyone at all levels with the team respected him. Ken looked out for others. He was known as someone who would help. Had he lived Ken would have delighted in being selected for the Hall of Fame. Now the extended Bengals family will have to do that for him. We miss him, and we celebrate him."

- Bengals President Mike Brown

Legendary Bengals CB Ken Riley, affectionately known by nicknames such as "The Rattler," "Mr. Bengal" and "Mr. Consistency," was officially announced as a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2023 at the NFL Honors ceremony on Feb. 9, 2023.

Riley, who passed away in 2020 at the age of 72, was one of three senior nominees selected to the class, joining Cowboys LB Chuck Howley and Jets defensive lineman Joe Klecko. He played in 207 games over 15 seasons (1969-83) for Cincinnati and had a team-record 65 career INTs, which also ranks tied for the fifth most in NFL history. Ken Riley II represented his father at the NFL Honors when he was introduced by Riley's former Bengals teammate and Pro Football Hall of Famer, Anthony Munoz. Riley and the rest of the Class of 2023 were enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, Aug. 5, 2023, at Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium in Canton, Ohio.

RING OF HONOR

2025 INDUCTEES

LAPHAM 62

Dave Lapham, entering his 50th season with the Bengals in 2025, is one of the team's most beloved figures. As a player, he was one of the most versatile offensive linemen in franchise history, starting at all five positions during his 140-game career and helping the 1981 team reach Super Bowl XVI. Since 1986, Lapham has been the Bengals' radio analyst, known for his football insight, quick wit and enthusiasm. Bengals President Mike Brown praised his continuity, intelligence and connection with fans, while Lapham called his Ring of Honor induction the highest honor of his life and expressed gratitude to the organization and supporters.

PARRISH 20

Lemar Parrish, known as "Leapin' Lemar," is one of the most exciting players in Bengals history and the franchise's highest scoring defensive player with touchdowns on interceptions, punts, fumbles and a kickoff. He earned six Pro Bowl selections and remains one of the team's most dynamic playmakers. Parrish set records for punt return average and long returns, leaving a lasting mark on the team's history. He said being selected to the Ring of Honor is the most prestigious award of his life and expressed gratitude to the team and fans.
